Engage & Grow
(Social Media Playbook)

Welcome to the latest edition of Engage & Grow!

This month, we continue our new approach to enhancing your social media outreach by providing suggested posts well in advance. In this edition, you'll find ready-to-use content for January, February, and March, giving you extra time to plan, prepare, and optimize engagement efforts across platforms.

Additionally, the Office of American Spaces will continue tracking hashtag usage to gain insights into how content is performing and being shared across different platforms. By actively incorporating the suggested hashtags, you help us measure engagement, identify trends, and showcase the powerful work being done worldwide. Stay tuned for more Sustained Engagement Content that will further strengthen your messaging, and let's make the most of these observances to inspire positive change and engagement!

Please consult with your REPS and/or your local Public Diplomacy Section for advice about current Department of State social media posture or specific situations. Thank you.

American Spaces social media managers can find ready-to-use graphics and photos in the linked Canva account or in the albums in the American Spaces Facebook group (please be aware that you must be logged into Facebook and have access to the American Spaces Facebook group to see the available digital assets). In Canva, we have images formatted for Facebook, LinkedIn, X, and Instagram for upcoming themes and you can customize them to fit your community's needs.

March 21: Poetry Day

Poetry Day

Celebrate the power of words to inspire, heal, and connect.

I hear America singing, the varied carols I hear,
Those of mechanics, each one singing his as it should be blithe and strong,
The carpenter singing his as he measures his plank or beam,
The mason singing his as he makes ready for work, or leaves off work,
The boatman singing what belongs to him in his boat, the deckhand singing on the steamboat deck,
The shoemaker singing as he sits on his bench, the hatter singing as he stands,
