  - Speaker is: Daan Roosegaarde, Dutch artist and innovator
  - 12 min 16 sec video
  - Video can be downloaded
  - Video transcript available in 15 languages
  - About the talk from Ted Talk website:
    Daan Roosegaarde uses technology and creative thinking to produce imaginative, earth-friendly designs. He presents his latest projects -- from a bike path in Eindhoven, where he reinterpreted "The Starry Night" to get people thinking about green energy, to Beijing, where he developed a smog vacuum cleaner to purify the air in local parks, to a dance floor that generates electricity to power a DJ booth. Check out Roosegaarde's vision for a future where creativity is our true capital.
