

DEVELOP

Health agencies worldwide create vaccines to prevent Ebola, influenza and other infectious diseases.

DISTRIBUTE

Some health workers travel to remote areas to reach more people, saving lives.

PREVENT

Vaccines stop the spread of—and can even eradicate—many communicable diseases.

This polio vaccination team in India contributed to a campaign that reported a 94 percent drop in infection rates.

VACCINES

VITAL FOR GLOBAL HEALTH