

Acadia • American Samoa • Arches • Badlands • Big Bend • Biscayne • Black Canyon of the Gunnison • Bryce Canyon
Canyonlands • Capitol Reef • Carlsbad Caverns • Channel Islands • Congaree • Crater Lake • Cuyahoga Valley
Death Valley • Denali • Dry Tortugas • Everglades • Gates of the Arctic • Gateway Arch • Glacier • Glacier Bay
Grand Canyon • Grand Teton • Great Basin • Great Sand Dunes • Great Smoky Mountains • Guadalupe Mountains
Haleakalā • Hawaii’s Volcanoes • Hot Springs • Indiana Dunes • Isle Royale • Joshua Tree • Kaibab • Kenai Fjords
Kings Canyon • Kobuk Valley • Lake Clark • Lassen Volcanic • Mammoth Cave • Mesa Verde • Mount Rainier
North Cascades • Olympic • Petrified Forest • Pinnacles • Redwood • Rocky Mountain • Saguaro • Sequoia • Shenandoah
Theodore Roosevelt • Virgin Islands • Voyageurs • Wind Cave • Wrangell-St. Elias • Yellowstone • Yosemite • Zion

United States National Parks

Yosemite in California was one of the first protected areas to become a national park more than a century ago. Depicted is Yosemite’s El Capitan during the fleeting winter “firefall,” when Horsetail Fall catches the light of sunset. The National Park Service manages 61 major parks and 358 smaller properties, totaling 34 million hectares.